I look forward to your response on what actions you will take to address this matter in the 72 session of the UNGA.

Because:
 On the anniversary of the massacre of over 30,000 political prisoners in summer of 1988 in Iran, we are calling on the UN to launch an independent inquiry into the 1988 massacre to reveal the truth, and end impunity of the perpetrators and hold them accountable for this crime against humanity.

Call for appoint an international commission to investigate the 1988 Massacre
